1. Duties and Responsibilities:

- a. The role of the proctor is particularly important in the Student Testing Program. If the proctor does the job properly, much of the temptation to cheat is gone and the possibility of test loss/compromise is greatly reduced.
- b. The military proctor is a representative of the Department of Defense, the U.S. Armed Services, and his or her respective Service. The proctor is on display, and attitudes toward the military by those who observe the test situation are directly affected by the proctor's conduct. He or she must be a professional at all times.
- c. Regardless of rank, rate, or grade, each proctor must remember that he or she is responsible to the Test Administrator (TA), and while at the test site the TA is in charge of the test session.
- d. Proctors will not congregate in groups during the test session. Proctors will patrol their assigned areas continuously while directions are being read and while the test is being administered. Within the assigned areas, the proctors will:
 - (1) Assist in distributing and collecting test materials as directed by the TA. Opening test books and viewing test questions is prohibited.
 - (2) Ensure that all students in the assigned area have the required test materials prior to beginning the test and that unused test materials are returned to the TA for securing and that test booklets are inventoried, by serial number, before students are dismissed.
 - (3) Assist the TA in collecting test materials when the students are released for a school emergency or other unplanned event.
 - (4) Assist students with those sections of the answer forms which pertain to identification, address, and release agreement.
 - (5) Throughout the test session, ensure that the students:
 - (a) Throughout the test session, ensure that the students, work on the proper test subsection,
 - (b) Use the proper section on the answer sheet for each test subsection,
 - (c) Do not make pencil marks in the test booklet,
 - (d) Do not make stray marks on their answer sheets,
 - (e) Do not cheat (immediately report any incidents of cheating to the TA,)
 - (f) Do not distract or assist other students.
 - (g) Do not use calculators, cellular phones, cameras, electronic translators, or other mechanical devices during the test.
 - (6) Not in any way assist students in answering test questions. Student may ask questions, but must be told only to "REREAD THE QUESTION."
 - (7) Not become involved in extended discussions with anyone in the test room or otherwise disturb student concentration.
- e. Proctors will remain in the testing room during the entire test session.
- f. The proctor must remember that active recruiting is prohibited during the test session. He/she should let actions, attitude, and appearance do the the recruiting during the test session.
- g. The proctor feels that the TA or other proctor did not demonstrate ethical conduct or that the TA did not administer the test in a professional manner, the particulars should be relayed to the IRC chairman and the violator's Commanding Officer.

2. Your duties and responsibilities while proctoring play a vital part in determining the success of the Student Testing Program. You should approach them with a positive attitude.
